

Are you a transport company in the long-distance sector?

Then GLS Germany is the right company for you. We offer you a long-term partnership with many other benefits.

What awaits you?

The core task is to provide transport services connecting our GLS subsidiaries, which are usually offered as round-trip transports. You will therefore be responsible for transports within the GLS locations throughout Germany and Europe.

What do we expect?

- Swap body or trailer transports with double manning
- Compliance with legal regulations (minimum wage, etc.)
- Availability of an EU licence as well as an insurance certificate
- German or English-speaking disposition

Your advantages with GLS:

- Close exchange with fixed contact persons
- Route planning by GLS
- Fixed tours for better planning within your fleet
- Contractual agreements on transports and remuneration

Are you interested?

We expect the following information in your meaningful application:

- Complete letterhead of your company
- Company presentation incl. available vehicle fleet
- Details or wishes regarding the area of operation
- Experience in the logistics sector
- Link to your website

Apply now – we look forward to hearing from you!
